

THE GOSPEL OF

MARK

The background features a globe with a circular path of red dots. The dots are arranged in a ring that appears to follow a latitude or longitude line, possibly the Tropic of Cancer or a similar path. The globe itself is rendered in a textured, pixelated style with various shades of brown, tan, and grey.

THE RESURRECTION OF THE GREAT SERVANT KING

Mark 16.1-8

Historical Facts ...

1. Jesus died by crucifixion around AD 30
2. After Jesus' death, he was buried in the tomb of a man named Joseph of Arimathea
3. On the third day after Jesus' burial, his tomb was discovered empty
4. The disciples of Jesus claimed to have seen him alive shortly after his death
5. The lives of Jesus' disciples were changed

THE RESURRECTION OF THE GREAT SERVANT KING

Mark 16.1-8