

WALKING IN THE WAY OF WISDOM

Proverbs 4:10-27

Central Idea: Making wise and godly decisions every day enables us to experience God and the joyful life that God intended.

I. The journey of life

II. Two ways to live (4:10-19)

A. Way of wisdom/righteousness

B. Way of foolishness/wickedness

III. Walking in the way of wisdom (4:20-27)

A. Listen to godly messages

B. Pursue godly desires

C. Speak godly words

D. Focus on godly goals

E. Cultivate godly actions

So what?

FOR INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION OR GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Looking back on your life, how you seen the decisions you've made (both good and bad) impact your experiences later in life?
2. What are some good practices, habits, or boundaries you've put in place in your life to help you make wise, godly decisions?
3. Look again at Proverbs 4:20-27 and the 5 aspects of walking in the way of wisdom. What are some messages you are listening to, desires you are pursuing, etc. that are not godly and leading you down the wrong path?
4. What are some godly and wise messages, desires, etc. that you want to develop into your life more to help you walk in wisdom ?
