

Now What...How Should We Respond?

November 8, 2020 sermon reflection questions

1. Pastor Chuck mentioned four responses to the recent election. Consider each of the four. What will be the challenges we face as we seek to do each one?
2. What does it mean to remain focused on the gospel? How can that be accomplished?
3. Read Titus 2:11-13. What does it look like for us to live “sensibly, righteously and in a godly manner in the present day?” Give practical examples. (Read the passage in various translations.)
4. Pray for our country. Pray for our elected officials. Pray for one another as believers living in these days.

ELECTION 2020

How Should We Respond?

Three Biblical Observations

Three Biblical Observations

1. We live in a fallen world.
-

Three Biblical Observations

1. We live in a fallen world.
 2. As a nation, we are reaping what we have sown.
-

Three Biblical Observations

1. We live in a fallen world
 2. As a nation, we are reaping what we have sown.
 3. Christians will come to different conclusions on how to respond to the issues of our day.
-

How Should We Respond?

How Should We Respond?

1. Let's commit to be respectful toward and pray for those who rule over us.

How Should We Respond?

1. Let's commit to be respectful toward and pray for those who rule over us.
2. Let's remain focused on the gospel.

How Should We Respond?

1. Let's commit to be respectful toward and pray for those who rule over us.
 2. Let's remain focused on the gospel.
 3. Let's fix our hope in our unchanging and sovereign God.
-
-

How Should We Respond?

1. Let's commit to be respectful toward and pray for those who rule over us.
 2. Let's remain focused on the gospel.
 3. Let's fix our hope in our unchanging and sovereign God.
 4. Let's cultivate personal faith and holiness.
- 