How does the American gospel measure up to Jesus words?

Letting Go!

Or; One Last Look at Sodom

Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. Matt 10:39

Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. John 12:25

The most shocking aspect of Jesus' words are this warning; In the moments before His return, life will feel absolutely routine. People will be preoccupied by a hundred other things; eating, drinking, marrying, paying bills, filling our gas tanks, commuting to work, planting and building.

“So it will be on the day that the Son of Man is Revealed.”

“Remember Lot’s wife”

To “look back” - “to pay attention to, to regard with pleasure, favor or care.”

Lot’s wife was so attached to Sodom that she looked back to the doomed city. Moments before her deliverance, she became part of God’s judgement on the city. (Gen. 19:26).

Our deliverance begins with letting go and is secured by never looking back (Luke 9:62).

Look! He is coming with the clouds,
and every eye will see Him,
including those who pierced Him.
And all the families of the earth
will mourn over Him.
This is certain. Amen.
“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says
the Lord God, “the One who is, who was, and who is coming, the Almighty.”
