

A Man of Sorrows

Job 1:20-22

Job stood up and tore his robe in grief. Then he shaved his head and fell to the ground to worship. He said,

“I came naked from my mother’s womb, and I will be naked when I leave.

The Lord gave me what I had, and the Lord has taken it away.

Praise the name of the Lord!”

In all of this, Job did not sin by blaming God.

This terrible twosome has the power to draw us away from fellowship . . .

And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love their Christian brothers and sisters. I John 4:21

Sin & Sorrow

Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. Gal. 6:2
Burden, baros: weight, a load, heaviness

And the two can become one.

Wolves prefer to hunt the weak, young, injured, and isolated who are separated from the herd.

“Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith.” 1 Pet 5:8, 9

Devour - katapino: To gulp down entirely, to drink down, to swallow up.

He was despised and rejected by men;
a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief . . .

Surely he has borne our griefs
and carried our sorrows;

yet we esteemed him stricken,
smitten by God, and afflicted.

But he was pierced for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the chastisement
that brought us peace,
and with his wounds we are healed.

Isaiah 53:3 & 4-5
