Part 4 of The Heart of the Matter

Watch Sermon | Sermon Notes

God deserves more than what is left over. When we seek Him first, we recognize His place in our lives, build our priorities on His truth, practice faithful generosity, and trust Him with the outcome.

1. FIRST: What Deserves My First? (Isaiah 44:6; Exodus 20:3; Colossians 1:18; Genesis 4:3–5; Hebrews 11:4; Malachi 1:6–13)
   - Giving God our first and best reveals the honor, trust, and devotion we have toward Him. When we give God what is left over, we risk treating Him as an afterthought.

   Discuss:
   - What is the difference between giving God your first and giving Him what is left over?
   - What might it look like for you to give God your first and best in your time, finances, and priorities?

2. FOUNDATION: What Determines My First? (Genesis 14:18–20; Psalm 110:4; Hebrews 7:8; Romans 4:11; Galatians 3:29; 2 Corinthians 9:15; Genesis 28:17, 22; Malachi 3:6–10; Leviticus 27:30; Hebrews 13:8)
   - We give because He has already shown us His goodness and because we recognize that we are stewards of what He has provided.

   Discuss:
   - How does recognizing that everything belongs to God change the way you view your finances?
   - Why is it important to understand giving as a response to God's goodness rather than a way to earn His favor?

3. FAQs: The Practicals (2 Corinthians 9:7; 2 Corinthians 8:5, 7; Matthew 23:23; 1 Corinthians 16:2; Malachi 3:10; Acts 4:35)
   - Scripture calls us to give willingly, cheerfully, and faithfully. The New Testament clearly teaches generosity, intentional giving, and wholehearted devotion to God.

   Discuss:
   - What questions or hesitations do you have about giving faithfully?

- How can we make generosity an intentional part of our lives rather than something we do only when it feels convenient?

4. FAITH: What Decision Do I Make? (Malachi 3:10; Revelation 13:8)
    - Giving can challenge our sense of security because it requires us to trust God rather than hold tightly to what we can see and control.

    Discuss:
    - What fears or concerns make it difficult to trust God with your finances?
    - What practical decision could help you put God first in your giving?
