Fear can cause us to hide, hesitate, and hold back, but Jesus calls us to believe even when circumstances seem hopeless. When we cannot see what God is doing, we can trust who He is and choose to keep showing up in faith.

1. FACE YOUR FEARS: Find the Wall (Luke 8:41–42, 49–50; Genesis 3:10; Matthew 1:20; Luke 1:13, 30; Matthew 14:27; 2 Timothy 1:7)
   - Throughout Scripture, God repeatedly meets people in moments of fear and reminds them of His presence. Sometimes the first step toward faith is identifying the wall fear has built in front of us and choosing to trust God beyond what we can see.

   Discuss:
   - What are you afraid of, and how has that fear affected the way you live, trust God, or respond to His direction?
   - What seems to spark fear in your life? Is there a particular situation where you feel like you've hit a wall?

2. BELIEF OR UNBELIEF: What Has Affected My "Fully"? (Luke 8:50; 2 Timothy 1:7; 1 Corinthians 15:58)
   - Unbelief can lead us to pull back, protect ourselves, or stop moving forward because we are afraid of disappointment. The question is not simply whether we believe, but whether our belief is shaping how fully we live.

   Discuss:
   - What has affected your "fully" in life? Have fear, disappointment, uncertainty, or past experiences caused you to hold back?
   - Where might God be asking you to keep showing up in faith, even when you cannot see the outcome?

3. TRUST THE PROCESS: Will I Be Part of the Tumult or the Testimony? (Mark 5:38–39; Luke 8:51–56)
   - When life feels confusing and the outcome is uncertain, we can become consumed by the surrounding turmoil or remain attentive to Jesus. Sometimes God is working in us while we are waiting for Him to work around us.

Discuss:

- What does it look like to trust Jesus when you do not have all the answers?
- How might God be using a difficult season to grow your faith, even before your circumstances change?

4. AGAIN: Arise (Luke 8:54–56; 1 Corinthians 15:58)

- We may face seasons when fear has caused us to hide, disappointment has caused us to stop, or uncertainty has left us feeling stuck. But Jesus continues to call us to trust Him and rise again. We may not always know what the outcome will be, but we can remain faithful, knowing our labor in the Lord is never in vain.

Discuss:

- Is there an area of your life where you need to rise again after fear, disappointment, or discouragement?
- Florence Chadwick once said, "All I could see was the fog." How can focusing only on what you see right now keep you from moving forward in faith?
