

I'm Clean, Clean Clean!

Romans 8:31-39

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:31-39

<sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Romans 8:31-39

<sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written:

“For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Romans 8:31-39

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

Romans 8:31-39

<sup>39</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Propitiation: To turn away wrath

Atonement: Repair or make amends.

Restore our relationship with God

Substitutionary Atonement:

He did for us what we could not do for ourselves. He is our substitute.

What shall we say in response to these things?

If God is for us, who can be against us?

What shall we say in response to these things?

Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen?

What shall we say in response to these things?

Who then is the one who condemns?

What shall we say in response to these things?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

When someone is against me, they are against God.

“... for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye...” (Zech. 2:8)

Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.”

Gamaliel

He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

"Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked.

"I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,"

1) God does not hold back from you anything you need.

“And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:19)

2 Peter 1:3-4

“His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

2 Peter 1:3-4

<sup>4</sup>Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.”

Ask yourself:

“Do I want God to supply my needs according to me or my needs according to Him?”

2) Along with the Holy Spirit, Jesus talks to God on your behalf.

3) Your suffering becomes part of God's purpose.

ROMANS
8:28
all things work together for the good of those that love God, and are called according to his purpose

Evil, pain and suffering do not happen because God has a “reason” for wanting them to happen. Instead, God uses every circumstance to fulfill His purposes. He gives purpose to pain.

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

But I'm clean, clean. Clean before my Lord

Clean, clean. Clean before my Lord

Like a spotless lamb I'm blameless in His sight

With no trace of wrong left to right

I'm clean, clean, clean
