

A Prologue To Calvary

1. The nature of our one true God.

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and faithful Father.

-He was present. (Gen. 22:1)

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and faithful Father.

-He was present. (Gen. 22:1)

-He had a single purpose. (Gen. 22:2-3)

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and faithful Father.

-He was present. (Gen. 22:1)

-He had a single purpose. (Gen. 22:2-3)

-He provided everything that he was required of.

An act of faith! (Gen. 22:6-8)

1. The nature of our one true God.
A loving and obedient Son. (Gen. 22:6-8)

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and obedient Son. 22:6-8

-It was a volitional act.

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and obedient Son. (Gen. 22:6-8)

-It was a volitional act.

-It was a substitutionary act.

1. The nature of our one true God.

A loving and obedient Son. (Gen. 22:6-8)

-It was a volitional act.

-It was a substitutionary act.

-It was sufficient for all men for all time.

1. The nature of our one true God.

The nameless servants, a type of Holy Spirit.

(Gen. 24)

2. The nature of genuine worship

2. The nature of genuine worship

-It must be personal

2. The nature of genuine worship

-It must be personal

-It must be private before it becomes public

Worship is always powerful when it is GENUINE

3. The natural byproduct of genuine faith.

-We receive the manifold blessings of God.

3. The natural byproduct of genuine faith.

- We receive the manifold blessings of God.
- We inherit the power of multiplication.

3. The natural byproduct of genuine faith.

- We receive the manifold blessings of God.
- We inherit the power of multiplication.
- We are a vessel of blessings to the entire world.

The LORD is worthy of all of our worship.

Of all David's sin, he was a worshipper