Life Group Questions:

1. Are you in a season where you may feel forgotten by God? If so, why do you feel forgotten by God?
2. What in your life is chipping away at your integrity, causing you to not be able to step into the call that God has on your life?
3. Is there someone in your life, even yourself, that you need to forgive?

“The Lord has deserted us; the Lord has forgotten us.” “Never! Can a mother forget her nursing child? Can she feel no love for the child she has borne? But even if that were possible, I would not forget you! See, I have written your name on the palms of My hands.”

Isaiah 49:14-16 (NLT)

“Until the time came to fulfill his dreams, the Lord tested Joseph’s character.”

Psalms 105:19 (NLT)

“And please remember me and do me a favor when things go well for you. Mention me to Pharaoh, so he might let me out of this place. For I was kidnapped from my homeland, the land of the Hebrews, and now I’m here in prison, but I did nothing to deserve it....” Pharaoh’s chief cup-bearer, however, forgot all about Joseph, never giving him another thought.”

Genesis 40:14-15, 23 (NLT)

“About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli lema sabachthani?” (which means “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”).”

Matthew 27:46 (NIV)

“You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.”

Genesis 50:20 (NIV)

“God has sent me here to keep you and your families alive, so that you will become a great nation.”

Genesis 45:7 (TLB)

“The church is Christ’s body, in which He speaks and acts, by which He fills everything with His presence.”

Ephesians 1:23 (MSG)
