“Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more. He said to them, ‘Listen to this dream I had: We were binding sheaves of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it.’ His brothers said to him, ‘Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?’ And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said.” Genesis 37:5-8 (NIV)

“Offer yourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to His service...Do not conform to the standards of this world but let God transform you...Then you will be able to know the will of God – What is good...pleasing...and...perfect.” Romans 12:1, 2 (GN)

“‘Here comes that dreamer!’ they said to each other...So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe – the richly ornamented robe he was wearing – and they took him and threw him into the cistern.” Genesis 37:19, 23-24 (NIV)

“One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside. She caught him by his cloak and said, ‘Come to bed with me!’ But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.” Genesis 39:11, 12 (NIV)

“But Joseph replied, ‘Don’t be afraid of me. Am I God, that I can punish you? You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people.’” Genesis 50:19, 20 (NLT)

“God has sent me here to keep you and your families alive, so that you will become a great nation.” Genesis 45:7 (TLB)

“The church, you see, is not peripheral to the world; the world is peripheral to the church. The church is Christ’s body, in which He speaks and acts, by which He fills everything with His presence.” Ephesians 1:23 (MSG)
