

DNA GROUPS: SIMPLE SCRIPTURE READING GUIDE

“We do not read the Bible to simply fill our minds, but to change our hearts. We read the Bible to stir our affections: our fear, our hope, our love, our desire, our confidence. We read it until our heart cries out, ‘The Lord is good!’”- Tim Chester

TEXT - THEOLOGY - LIFE - PRAYER

TEXT – Read the scripture together. Allow some time to think and take notes.

- What caught your attention? What questions do you have?
- What kind of text is this (Poetry, Letter, History, Devotional, Wisdom, etc.)
- What seems to be the main point of the text?
- Where does it fit in the larger story of God? How do other parts of scripture help me clarify this text?

THEOLOGY – Consider what the text is teaching us about God

- What does this text seem to be teaching us about God?
- How does Jesus help us make sense of this text?

LIFE – Allowing God’s Word to re-shape our life.

- How does this text lead you to love God and others more?
- What sin or need does this text reveal in your own life?
- How is the Spirit leading you to respond in obedience?

PRAYER – Going to God with our need for His Grace

- Ask God for help in the area you sense the Spirit leading you to live in a new way.
- What is one personal need you have that we can pray for together?
- Pray for one friend, family member, or fellow student who you want to share the love of Jesus with.
