

Glad in the Goodness of God

Introduction:

Psalm 100 has two calls and causes for praise that compel your heart to greater worship of your God.

1. A Call for _____ Praise (vv.1–3)

a. The Call: (vv.1–2)

i. For E_____ Praise

ii. For E_____ Praise

iii. For E_____ Praise

b. The Cause for Praise (v.3)

- Praise that is I_____:
 - i. By Who _____
 - ii. By What _____
 - iii. By Who _____

2. A Call for _____ Praise (vv. 4–5)

a. The Call: (v.4)

i. To A_____ with Praise

ii. For G_____ Praise

iii. For E_____ Praise

b. The Cause for Praise (v. 5)

- We respond to:

i. His E_____ Goodness

טוב tov

ii. His E_____ Lovingkindness

חֶסֶד = hesed

iii. His E_____ Faithfulness

אֱמוּנָה = emunah

Application:

- Join the Psalmist and call all the earth to praise God. An implication for personal evangelism!
- Join the Psalmist in serving God with gladness. Present your life as a living sacrifice, a spiritual service of worship (Rom 12:1).
- Expand your worship by expanding your understanding. To know God is to praise Him.
- Approach God with a thankful heart. “For Yahweh is good; His lovingkindness endures forever and His faithfulness, generation unto generation.” (Psalm 100:5 LSB)
