

The Word of God in the Child of God: Affections Forged in Affliction?

Introduction:

In the Teth Stanza of Psalm 119 (vv.65–72), we learn three lessons about God's goodness in affliction that strengthen our faith in Him and deepen our delight in His Word.

1. R_____ God's Goodness in P_____ Affliction
(vv. 65–67)

2. R_____ God's Goodness in P_____ Affliction
(vv. 68–70)

3. R_____ God's Goodness in P_____ Affliction
(vv. 71–72)

Take it Home:

Worship God: Look back on how God has shown His goodness and grown you through past affliction. Praise Him for His faithfulness!

Reflect & Confess: Are there circumstances in your life right now that are causing you to doubt God's goodness? Confess your doubts to Him in prayer, and return to His Word to remember that He is good and does good.

Treasure & Share: Choose a verse from God's Word that has been especially precious to you in a time of trial, a promise, a truth, or an encouragement, and share it with someone this week. If they are a believer, ask them to share a verse God has used to strengthen them in affliction. If they are an unbeliever, share why that truth is precious to you and how it points you to the goodness of God in Christ.
