Gathering To Celebrate the Word

PRELUDE Instrumental Kathy Morrow

WELCOME Jordan Shive

CALL TO WORSHIP Jordan Shive

One: Welcome to this place of love and grace. We gather today to worship the One who created us,

All: We worship the One who calls us. We are welcomed, just as we are. We are loved, just as we are.

One: We worship the One who equips us. God invites all of us to share in the good news:

All: We worship the One who loves us without end. God invites all of us to be a part of the beloved community.

One: In gratitude for all of this, let us worship God.

All: With joyful hearts, let us worship God.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION Jordan Shive

SONG “Graves into Gardens” Ale Gomez & Kathy Morrow

PRAYER OF CONFESSION Shelly Jarnot
Lord, you have made us to care for your creation and commissioned us to carry out your healing work to the best of our ability. But we have not served you with our energy, intelligence, imagination, and love. Sometimes we withhold our gifts and live in fear. We love with condition. We cast the first stone, and keep the logs in our own eyes. Reclaim us with your love, so we can live selfless lives.
