We are fully engaged in iLive²⁰²⁶! We started with the iAm — identity! Remember that the Great I Am cares about our identity crises in the junctures, junctions, journey of life . . . leading us to iDie — initiative.

When we move past the first two words (iAm) of the primary text we then realize quickly that the picture here is stark. "I am crucified..." The imagery is certainly nothing glamorous. The cross is not a trinket The cross is—to put it bluntly—an instrument of execution and death!

Yes, Christ went to the cross and died in our place, but each one of us must take the initiative to die . . . and this is the imagery Paul chooses to express what truly must take place in each one of our lives.
