At the Antioch Senior Group Meeting on January 21 at 10:30am we will be honored to have a presentation by Bill Lohmann, a veteran reporter, feature writer, and columnist for the Richmond Times-Dispatch. His keen eye and curious mind help him chronicle the scenic and cultural riches to be found in the Commonwealth. His new book offers 15 itineraries for inviting drives and day trips around the state. Copies of his book will be available for purchase and signing. As always, covered dish follows! 2019 dues ($15) and renewal form due!

The Chronic Illness/Caregivers Support Group (led by Amy Martin) will meet on Thursday, February 7 at 7 p.m. in the fellowship hall. Group will continue the 6-week DVD and workbook Bible Study: When Life is Hard: Turning Your Trials to Gold by James MacDonald. We will have a follow-up discussion on Session 2: Why Trials? and start the video and discussion on Session 3: What to Do With Trials?, which focuses on 1 Peter 4:1-19. Anyone interested should contact Amy at 804-868-9032 or liltheatredirector@yahoo.com by Sunday, Feb. 3, so she can get a workbook - and update it– in time for the meeting. The group is open to anyone with any diagnosed or undiagnosed chronic illness or symptoms, and caregivers.
