1. What was the make, model and year of your first car? Was it a “dream” car...or just a first car?
2. Read Hebrews 1:1-2a. Why is it significant that God has spoken to man? What does the writer mean by the statement that now God “has spoken to us by his Son?”
3. Read Hebrews 1:1-3. Discuss the “Seven Excellencies of Jesus.” Which one stands out to you and/or has significant meaning for you?
4. Discuss what it means to “live for eternity.” Compare and contrast what it looks like to live for today and live for eternity.
5. Discuss the following quote from C. S. Lewis’ chapter on “Hope” in his book, Mere Christianity. What is the only thing that satisfies the deepest longing of our heart?

Most people, if they had really learned to look into their own hearts, would know that they do want, and want acutely, something that cannot be had in this world. There are all sorts of things in the world that offer to give it to you, but they never quite keep their promise. The longings which arise in us when we first fall in love, or first think of some foreign country, or first take up some subject that excites us, are longings which no marriage, no travel, not learning, can really satisfy. I am not speaking of what would be ordinarily called unsuccessful marriages, or holidays, or leaned careers. I am speaking about the best possible ones. There was something we grasped at, in that first moment of longing, which just fades away in reality.
-Lewis, Mere Christianity, 135
