My Testimony by Alexis Smith

Hello Everyone,

I feel blessed to share another chapter of God's work in my life. Not only has the Lord blessed me with two sons who survived a 25- week birth, He is keeping me through dialysis, and restoring my life. I have been through a lot of trials and the Lord has been faithful through all of them.

This new journey started on November 9, 2019 after being found unresponsive, taken by EMS to the hospital and waking up on November 18th with the trach. Then, staying in a rehab hospital until Dec 14th, still being unable to talk. I found out that I was on a breathing tube and that my vocal cords were paralyzed.

In all this I had to learn to rely on others to do my business and talk for me. It was usually the other way around where I did all the talking for everyone. What a challenge!

Through all this I am learning the meaning of James 1: 19, "And now my brothers, be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger." I have learned much more by being quiet about myself. I have come a long way.

I'm now going toward my third surgery this month, possible even more, trusting God for the outcome. I'm able to talk a little and be understood now. I am shouting out in my soul, "thank you Jesus! Thank you! Thank you, Jesus! Can He do it? Yes, He can! Yes, He is! Yes, He is doing it! Just continue to believe and trust in Jesus. Stand on His word and promises. He will come through. I am a living witness.
