What's the weirdest or funniest job you've ever had to do?

What's your "secret skill" that no one expects you to have?

01 What stands out to you in the interaction between Jesus and Peter in John 21:13-19 (Please Read)?

02 Jesus told Peter to "feed My sheep." What does that mean? What does that look like in everyday life for you?

03 Serving often flows from restoration. How has God used your past failures to help others today?

04 In verse 18, Jesus predicts the kind of death Peter would die. Why do you think Jesus includes this detail as part of Peter's restoration? What does it say about the cost of following Christ?

05 How does this encounter show the balance between grace and calling? What do we learn about how Jesus restores us not just to forgiveness but to purpose?

06 Compare Peter's restoration in John 21 with the prodigal son's return in Luke 15:11-32. In what ways does Jesus' interaction with Peter mirror the father's response in the parable?

07 What do both stories teach us about God's heart toward those who have failed or wandered?

08 It's interesting that Jesus told Peter that he would be persecuted for his faith. Jesus called Peter to follow Him, even though it would involve sacrifice. What's one area where you sense God calling you to serve, even if it's uncomfortable?

09 What would you say is the greatest sacrifice you've made for your faith?
