

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Ice Breaker: What's one of your favorite memories from your childhood?

Ice Breaker: What's one of the best pieces of advice you've ever received? Who gave it to you?

Having heard on Sunday about Acts 5, How would you summarize the actions of Ananias and Sapphira?

Read Acts 5:1-16. What do you think motivated Ananias and Sapphira to lie about the sale price of their property?

How do you think their actions reflected their heart condition?

Are there areas in your life where you are tempted to be hypocritical or deceitful? How can you address those areas?

Read Psalm 139. What do you notice about the different things God knows about you?

From Psalm 139, how does God's full knowledge of you impact how you might engage with him and others?

How does the story of Ananias and Sapphira challenge us to evaluate our own integrity and honesty in our dealings with others, both in our personal and professional lives?

Have you observed a believer who was honest and above reproach in their dealings with people? Please explain.

Reflecting on Ananias and Sapphira's actions, what does this passage teach us about the importance of examining our motives when giving or serving in the church or community? How can we ensure our giving is done with pure intentions?

Do you think God's response to Ananias and Sapphira was fair? Why or why not?

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Ice Breaker: What's one of your favorite memories from your childhood?

Ice Breaker: What's one of the best pieces of advice you've ever received? Who gave it to you?

Having heard on Sunday about Acts 5, How would you summarize the actions of Ananias and Sapphira?

Read Acts 5:1-16. What do you think motivated Ananias and Sapphira to lie about the sale price of their property?

How do you think their actions reflected their heart condition?

Are there areas in your life where you are tempted to be hypocritical or deceitful? How can you address those areas?

Read Psalm 139. What do you notice about the different things God knows about you?

From Psalm 139, how does God's full knowledge of you impact how you might engage with him and others?

How does the story of Ananias and Sapphira challenge us to evaluate our own integrity and honesty in our dealings with others, both in our personal and professional lives?

Have you observed a believer who was honest and above reproach in their dealings with people? Please explain.

Reflecting on Ananias and Sapphira's actions, what does this passage teach us about the importance of examining our motives when giving or serving in the church or community? How can we ensure our giving is done with pure intentions?

Do you think God's response to Ananias and Sapphira was fair? Why or why not?

