

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Ice Breaker: What do you most enjoy doing in your downtime?

Ice Breaker: What book do you want to read next (besides the Bible)?

What was one thing that was helpful to you from Sundays message?

Read Acts 20:19. Paul served with humility, tears, and trials. How do you demonstrate humility in your relationships and service to others? What are the challenges to staying humble in leadership roles?

Have you observed someone demonstrate humility in a situation when they could have been proud? How did it affect the situation?

Read Acts 20:31. Paul empathized with the struggles of others, even crying with them. How can you better empathize with others in your community or church?

Share a time when empathy helped you connect with someone.

Read Acts 20:24. Paul prioritized the gospel over his own life. What personal concerns or fears hold you back from fully serving God? How can you overcome them?

Read Acts 20:28. Paul warned the Ephesian elders to watch out for themselves and the church. How do you take spiritual inventory of your life? How can we encourage each other to remain spiritually vigilant?

Paul emphasized the importance of feeding the church with God's Word. What can you do to help ensure that your church is well-fed spiritually? How do you contribute to the spiritual growth of others?

In Acts 20:29-30 Paul warned about false teachers and wolves within and outside the church. How can we protect our church from false teachings? What role do you play in maintaining the health and unity of the church?

Missionary of the week

Steve and Sherry De Ford

Steve, Sherry and family serve the Lord in Peach Springs, AZ, where Steve pastors Hualapai Baptist Church of Peach Springs, AZ. Steve is also President of Independent Baptist Indian Missions, Inc. (IBIMI) and manages the home office.

The ministries of IBIMI establish indigenous churches, train native pastors and workers, and evangelize the tribal community.

There are several ways you can help IBIMI; by praying for them, by corresponding with them, offering to host a mission conference at your church, and by giving financially.

We sincerely thank you for your support.
