

Back to the Future Small Group Questions, Week 1

Ice Breaker: Which song could you listen to over and over again?

Ice Breaker: If you could watch a future recording of one end times event, which event would it be?

What was most intriguing or encouraging from Sunday message?

When you were listening to Sunday's message, what did you feel? Hope, fear, encouragement, sadness. Please explain why?

When the average person thinks or talks about the end times, the conversation is usually filled with fear and dread. Why do you think that is?

Christ is coming back for his people. He has promised. We just don't know when. "Soon," we are told. The Bible says signs of the end times include International wars, political revolution, famine, natural disasters, epidemics, the persecution of Christians, rampant immorality, and the worldwide spread of the message of Jesus. Do you believe we are living in the end times?

Why do you think God has not told us when the rapture might occur?

Read 2 Thessalonians 2:1-3. As you read these verses, what was the reason given that believers shouldn't be shaken or troubled as we live this life?

Read Daniel 2:34-35. What happened to the image in Nebuchadnezzar's dream? What are some observations you have about the image and events?

What happened to the stone that struck the image? What does this symbolize?

What encouraging principles can you learn from these two verses?

Why do you believe it is important to study biblical prophecy and the end times events?

As we begin this new sermon series on Biblical Prophecy, what are you most excited about hearing and discussing?
