

It's Already Done: From Construction to Manifestation

ALREADY DONE

The Construction Reality vs. The Faith Truth

Ownership vs. Manifestation

Just because the house looks unfinished doesn't mean you don't already own the deed.

Faith Sees Through the Dust

Faith hears hammers and sees a mess but still declares, 'It is mine.'

Abundance is the Natural State

We don't talk God into blessing us; we align with the blessing already given.

The Three Pillars of 'Already Done'

Faith Starts Where God Finished

We are not believing God to 'do' it, but for what He has 'done.'

Calling is Older Than the Crisis

What you face is new, but God's decision for your life is ancient.

Walk While Manifestation Catches Up

Hold fast to your confession because He who promised is reliable and faithful.
