Live In Love

Hebrews 13:1–6

1. In just a few words, describe your relationship with your brothers or sisters growing up.
How might the sister/brother/sibling relationship be a good analogy for our relationships in the church? How might it be a poor one?

Read Hebrews 13:1–6

2. What are the fundamental differences between being self-centered and living for others? Overall, do you lean toward “self” or “others”?
3. What are the five displays of brotherly love in this passage?
4. Read John 13:34–35; 1 John 3:17; Galatians 6:10
Why is brotherly love so important to Christianity?
5. How would you define hospitality?
Give an example of hospitality that you have experienced.
Is it easy or difficult for you to show hospitality to others? Why?
6. To what extent does our passage ask us to empathize with those who suffer?
How would you rate your compassion and empathy for others?
What has contributed to your level of compassion and empathy?
7. If you are married, how can you show fidelity to your spouse this week?
8. How content is our culture with money and possessions? Why is this?
How can we learn to be content?

Reflect

9. In which of these six areas have you made the most progress this year:
Brotherly love
Providing hospitality
Empathy for those who suffer
Keeping your marriage strong
Staying free from the love of money

Memory Verse—Hebrews 13:1-2

Let brotherly love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.
