

Life Lessons: Teaching Our Children Well

Matthew 6:19–24

Life Lessons . . .

1. Your Attitude Toward _____

Matthew 6:19–21

2. Your Attitude Toward _____

Matthew 6:22–23

3. Your Attitude Toward _____

Matthew 6:24

Life Group Questions
Life Lessons: Teaching Our Children Well

Matthew 6:19–24

Opener: What do you think of when you hear the phrase “treasure in heaven”?

READ: Matthew 6:19-24

1. What are some typical “markers of success” in our culture? How much time and energy do you use pursuing them?
2. What are some modern-day examples of “moth, rust and thieves,” things that would threaten your possessions? How much time and resources do you use to protect your possessions from these things?
3. What are some typical life priorities that parents in our culture teach to their children?
4. What are the life priorities you would most like to see in your children or grandchildren?
5. Where would you place yourself on the following continuum:
Earthly _____ Godly
Priorities _____ Priorities
6. What can you do to reflect God’s priorities more in your life?
7. Read Romans 12:8 and 2 Corinthians 8:2
Where would you place yourself on the following continuum:
Greedy _____ Generous
8. What steps could you take to become more generous toward others?
9. Read 1 Timothy 6:17–19
Where would you place yourself on the following continuum:
Trusting _____ Trusting
In “Mammon” _____ in God
10. What can you do to have more trust in God, and less in your possessions?
11. What is your main takeaway from our time together?

Memory Verse: Matthew 6:19–20 ESV

“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.”