

Our Father and God,

We stand in Your presence this morning humbled to know that You call us Your children because we have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through Your living and enduring Word.

Our Father, grace and peace are ours in abundance because You have given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil, or fade.

Father, with joyful exuberance we give thanks for the inheritance You are keeping for us and for Your power that protects us until we receive the full reality of that salvation.

Our Father, with these things in view, we worship You this morning through our songs of praise, through our attentiveness to Your Word as it is spoken over us, and through the mindfulness we give to the obedience of Your Word as we leave this place to live in a world that desperately needs You.

In Jesus name, Amen!

