

God created the heavens and the earth.

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LOR,
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you,
plans to give you hope and a future.

He took up our pain and bore our suffering.

<sup>17</sup> Now in giving this instruction I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For to begin with, I hear that when you come together as a church there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. <sup>19</sup> Indeed, it is necessary that there be factions among you, so that those who are approved may be recognized among you. <sup>20</sup> When you come together, then, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-33

<sup>21</sup> For at the meal, each one eats his own supper. So one person is hungry while another gets drunk!

<sup>22</sup> Don't you have homes in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I do not praise you in this matter!

1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-33

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread, <sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>25</sup> In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." <sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-33

<sup>27</sup> So, then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sin against the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup> Let a person examine himself; in this way let him eat the bread and drink from the cup.

<sup>29</sup> For whoever eats and drinks without recognizing the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself.

<sup>30</sup> This is why many are sick and ill among you, and many have fallen asleep.

1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-33

<sup>31</sup> If we were properly judging ourselves, we would not be judged, <sup>32</sup> but when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined, so that we may not be condemned with the world.

<sup>33</sup> Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, welcome one another.

1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-33

- <sup>3</sup> Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye but don't notice the log in your own eye?
- <sup>4</sup> Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and look, there's a log in your eye?
- <sup>5</sup> Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

MATTHEW 7:3-5

<sup>18</sup> For to begin with, I hear that when you come together as a church there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

1 CORINTHIANS 11:18

<sup>10</sup> God, create a clean heart for me and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

PSALM 51:10

THE OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread, <sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>25</sup> In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." <sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.
