THE NIGHT HEAVEN FOUGHT FOR YOU

1. When you think about “the Christmas you didn’t see coming,” what expectations were unmet this year—and how did that affect your heart going into the holidays?
2. How does seeing Christmas as a spiritual battle (Revelation 12) change the way you understand the birth of Jesus?
3. Can you think of a season in your life when you felt like you “didn’t stand a chance”? Where do you see now that God may have been fighting for you—even if you didn’t realize it at the time?
4. Why do you think silence—when God feels distant or quiet—is such a powerful weapon for the enemy? How have you experienced that silence personally?
5. What is one part of your testimony you need to hold onto—or speak out loud—during this season to remind yourself that heaven is still fighting for you?
