Verdict! - Week 3

Sovereignty of Christ

What is the sovereignty of Christ? It can best be explained as: His supreme, divine authority as King of Kings over all creation, holding all things together and ruling with absolute power.

How do we prove the absolute power and authority of Jesus when reviewing the case for Christ?

I want to talk to you guys today about another human who never let things like this get in the way of His ministry.

The God Who Sees Me

The story of Abram and Hagar is one that kind of gets forgotten about and overlooked given the amount of historical events Abraham was a part of. If you're not familiar, God had promised Abram and Sarai a son, but they were already very old and their days seemed numbered. So after years of sitting on this promise from God Sarai had the bright idea to take God's promise into her own hands. "Why don't you take my slave Hagar and conceive with her?" She suggested to Abram.

"El Roi"- The God Who Sees Me

Genesis 16:13 NIV

One of the most important qualities of having an all powerful God is that He sees YOU.

Jesus Interrupted

Mark 2:4-5 NIV

Jesus, although he was in the middle of teaching to a crowd of dozens, if not hundreds, stopped what he was doing and changed this man's life. Not only physically, but spiritually.

Mark 10:13-15 NIV

Mark 9:42 NIV

Just like God saw Hagar, a lowly slave who bore the child of a married man, Just like Jesus saw the paralytic man, just like he saw the little children, just like he saw the woman at the well... HE. SEES. YOU.

Power Perfected in Weakness

Jesus isn't just capable of doing things himself. He has the power to work through the weaknesses of others as well.

2 Corinthians 12:8-10 NIV

Is Jesus a chain breaker? Yes. More than capable. You know what else he is? A story maker.

He can and will use you guys for the same purpose, church. You just have to be willing to submit to His power.
