RETHINKING HELL - PART 2

QUESTION 1

Get-to-know-me

In the sermon, Pastor Nathan challenged the idea of hell being God's punishment and proposed hell was God's protection. Does this challenge the way you traditionally thought about hell? How does this idea change the gospel message?

QUESTION 2

Into-the-Bible

Read Mark 7:21, Romans 7:14-19, Jeremiah 17:9, Galatians 5:17

Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn says, "The line separating good and evil passes not through countries, nor between classes, nor between political parties - but right through the middle of every human heart". What do these scripture have to say about the human condition? Why do we have a tendency to look outward for evil instead of inward? How do we respond to the reality of evil existing within our own desires?

Take-it-home

Evil is an aggressive parasite that causes division. If you turn on the news or go on social media, you'll quickly see how divided we all are on a plethora of current issues. How should Christians engage with politics, social issues, etc.? Does how you interact with others contribute to division or unity?
