Into-the-Bible

Read Galatians 1:1-5, John 1:4-5

What stands out to you in these verses? What makes you curious?

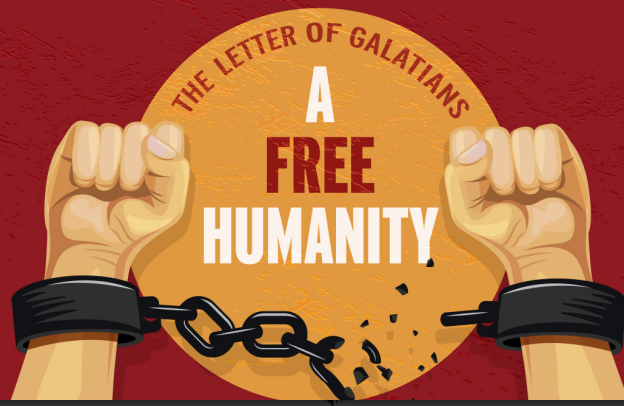

Pastor Luc shared how since evil has entered the world our view of God has been distorted, resulting in humans feeling like God does not like us, is angry at us, or is hateful toward us. Do you relate to those statements? How so?

Do you ever struggle with the truth that God loves & likes you?

QUESTION 3

Take-it-home

Pastor Luc shared how we project our own insecurities on God and other people. For example... we don't trust God... so we don't trust each other. Or perhaps, we feel God has unrealistic and demanding expectations... so we put unrealistic expectations on each other. Do you relate to either of those insecurities? Can you think of other insecurities people have that affect how they interact with God and others?

SCRIPTURE READINGS

GALATIANS 1:1-5

“Paul, a messenger [sent] not by other men or chosen by man but commissioned by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Jesus from the dead, along with my missionary team, to God’s communities in Galatia: grace and peace from God our Father, and our LORD Jesus Christ, who gave himself over to our fallen human existence so that he could rescue us out of the present evil age. This is in keeping with our God and Father’s well-known desire that transcends the ages. Amen.”

JOHN 1:4-5

“In Him was life and that life was the light for humanity. The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it.”
