Displaying the Reconciling
Hope of the Gospel to
Hispanics in metro Atlanta

Why Atlanta?

Hispanics in the United States:

- ✓ In 2002 when I came to the United States, the Hispanic population was 38.8 million
- ✓ In 2022, after 20 years, the Hispanic population is now over 62 million

Hispanics in Georgia:

- ✓ Currently around a million
- ✓ Clarkston, Georgia (just outside Atlanta) is one of the main landing points for refugees coming into the United States

Hispanics in the metro Atlanta area:

- ✓ Over 600,000
- ✓ Projected to nearly double in the next several years
- ✓ By 2050, Hispanics will make up 21 percent of metro Atlanta

Why did we plant Gospel Hope Español?

A generational disconnect exists among Hispanic families between the first, second, and third generations.

Our desire is to take the Gospel to "Whole Families" or "Familias Juntas" so they will be transformed and reconciled not only to God but also to each other through the Hope of the Gospel.

Our Goal

The goal of Gospel Hope is to establish and build other ethnic congregations along with our English and Spanish groups. Currently, we are in that process with Burmese and Erestrian (from Ethiopia) congregations.

We also want to train multinational church planters who will then go and plant churches. Our desire is to:

- ✓ Train
- ✓ Send
- ✓ Support

Outreach Opportunities

We envision building ethnic congregations through opportunities for outreach in our local community:

- ✓ Youth soccer
- ✓ Local parks
- ✓ Community groups
- ✓ ESL classes
- ✓ Evangelism

Our Burden

Our burden overflows from my own personal story:

- First generation immigrant from the Dominican Republic
- Married to an American
- Our children are half Spanish and half American

As a family, we have been involved in multicultural ministries:

- In the Dominican Republic
- On the Pacific island of Guam
- In Milwaukee, Wisconsin
- Now in Atlanta, Georgia

What can you do?

- Pray for us
- Partner with us
- Participate with us

Colossians 1:27-28

"To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus."
