Connection is a Good Thing

by Julie Zager, Director of Connections

Analise Kearby recalls her experience connecting at Northshore. "My husband and I were wanting to find a church where we could serve. We had been to another church for three years, but we struggled getting involved. Our very first Sunday at Northshore we experienced a warm, welcoming environment we wanted to be connected with. We saw opportunities for the safety team and knew this was for us. I am a nurse and liked that I could serve my church in this way. We immediately were welcomed by the team and have enjoyed serving twice a month. We have made friends and are thankful for the community we have found at Northshore..."
