Learning to Trust God

by Summer Wilson

I had been a follower of Jesus for most of my life, but it seemed like my relationship with the Lord had become more about routine and checking all the boxes than about knowing Him in the depths of my soul. I read the Bible, I did the Bible studies, I served in church, I wore the smile, but I didn't know my God the way that satisfied my soul and ignited my spirit ... like King David did, a leader in biblical history. I prayed, "God, help me know You in a way that is different. I long to know You like King David did."

A few months later we learned that I was pregnant with our 6th child, a surprise to both my husband and me...
