A Life Rebuilt

by Jeff Wysong

I was baptized as a child but too young to understand what it meant. I didn't grow up in the church and just sort of lived life the way I felt was the best for me, so I made some terrible choices and mistakes along the way. I put myself, my family, and my career at risk while trying to make my life my own. Over the course of the last eleven years, my life and my decisions have slowly unraveled and brought me to my knees. I was trying to live life on my own, without God, and it simply wasn't working. My life was empty, I was in perpetual pain and fear, and I just didn't understand why my life was the way it was. I lost my way entirely.

In 2007, I was on a combat mission in Iraq when a bomb exploded...
