Dream Big

by Dorene Minton

At the end of last year, a family contacted me and asked me to dream big. What would I want for our NKids Ministry if there were no limits? I knew right away what my answer would be.

Two years ago we decided to divide our large room where we had our playroom and big group meetings because we needed more space for the younger kids. I thought it would work, leaving enough space for there still to be a playroom the kids could use, as well as providing a much-needed smaller room for toddlers with separation anxiety...
