Living Authentically

by Kathy Torrey

I'm a recovered addict of approval and people-pleasing. I'm looking forward to participating in the upcoming Authentic Living small group this spring. I have been participating in the 12-Step group, Codependents Anonymous (CoDA), on and off for the last 27 years. While I have learned how to deal with anxiety, depression, panic attacks, and other issues within CoDA, I believe this Authentic Living small-group experience is going to take my healing to the next level.

Utilizing three of the twelve steps, Authentic Living focuses on 'getting real with God, myself, and others.' It contains specific exercises on how to know myself and accept myself well in order to know what my priorities and values are...
