Community Serve Day

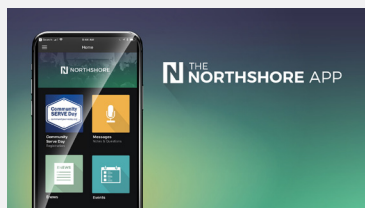

Aug. 26 at 9am | communityserve.org

Northshore will help 26 local schools get ready for the upcoming school year. We will not have services that Sunday. T-shirts are given to the first 600 people who register.

Text "jimclass" to 97000*

We will send out daily text messages to help encourage you in living out your faith as we go through Jim Class together.

A Reason to Celebrate

by Tim King, Pastor of Community Outreach

Ten years ago, Northshore Community Church partnered with Overlake Christian Church to organize volunteers to help beautify two schools on the east side of Seattle. They called it Community Serve Day. The two churches organized volunteers, who spent an afternoon painting, scrubbing, and cleaning to help the schools shine before students arrived. The following year, they continued their efforts but also brought on additional partners and schools. Now, ten years later, over 2,500 volunteers from 20 church partners and organizations in the community gather together to beautify 26 schools in the Northshore and Lake Washington areas...
