When God Changes Your Heart

by Todd Fredrickson

My wife, Kerri, and I were sitting in the front row of the balcony at Northshore, listening as the pastor described an ambitious new missions project in which our church would send several short-term teams to the small town of Los Cedros, Nicaragua. One of the teams would be especially well suited for families with children. The Fredrickson children would be fourteen, twelve, and nine at the time of the trip.

I leaned over to my wife and said, "We're going!"

Her response was swift and equally sure. "No, we're not!"
