Community Serve Day

Aug. 26 at 9am | communityserve.org

Northshore will help 26 local schools get ready for the upcoming school year. We will not have services next Sunday. T-shirts are available in the Baker room to those who have signed up.

Volunteer Kickoff

Sep. 9 at 5pm

If you volunteer in any capacity at Northshore, we invite you to attend a delicious dinner and hear our vision and plans for the upcoming ministry year.

Women's Fall Registrations Now Open

Whether you're new to Northshore or you've been here a while, we have a place for you. From small dinner gatherings, bible studies and more, we'd love to spend time together. Find out more at Northshore.church/women.

Prayer is available up front after the service.

Today is the last day we are offering iced coffee for the summer.

An Invitation to MOPS

by Tessa Chaplin

I grew up in a small town in Northern Michigan, with parents who served our community regularly. My mother managed a juvenile delinquent facility, mentored at-risk youth, and volunteered at a homeless shelter outside of work. The urge to help others has always been in me, but I wasn't sure where to volunteer or how to get started. Being an introvert, it was difficult to push myself to step out of my comfort zone.

A friend invited me to MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers) when my youngest daughter was four....
