Discovering Alpha

by Jonathan Wolfgang

Like many dads, I have spent countless hours on the sidelines of sporting events and practices. Softball games, soccer games, track meets, you name it, I've been there. While we watch our kids play, parents pass the time chatting about a wide range of topics. Since many of the parents know I'm a pastor, occasionally the conversation will turn to spiritual topics.

That was the case with Bethany (not her real name). Her son played soccer with mine and we often found ourselves sitting at practices talking about life and faith. Like many people, she respected what I did for a living and that I have heartfelt beliefs, but she was convinced this whole "Jesus thing" wasn't for her...
