

SESSION THREE WORKSHEET October 22, 2023

Thanks for answering the following questions BEFORE you attend your group. This will be used in the discussion time for your group.

has encouraged you, stood by you, supported you, or taken a risk for you? If so, can you bried describe the situation? Who was it, what did they do, and how did it affect you?  2. Now, in your life story, can you identify someone to whom you have been a Barnabas? Some you encouraged, stood by, supported, or taken a risk for? If so, can you briefly describe the situation? Who was it you encouraged, how did you do it, and what effect did it have?  3. Finally, as you think ahead to the next chapters in your story, is there someone on the horizon.	cassion time for your group.
you encouraged, stood by, supported, or taken a risk for? If so, can you briefly describe the situation? Who was it you encouraged, how did you do it, and what effect did it have?  3. Finally, as you think ahead to the next chapters in your story, is there someone on the horizo whom can be a Barnabas? If so, briefly describe that potential situation you might be called	1.	In your life story, can you identify someone that has been a Barnabas in your life? Someone who has encouraged you, stood by you, supported you, or taken a risk for you? If so, can you briefly describe the situation? Who was it, what did they do, and how did it affect you?
whom can be a Barnabas? If so, briefly describe that potential situation you might be called	2.
	3.	Finally, as you think ahead to the next chapters in your story, is there someone on the horizon to whom can be a Barnabas? If so, briefly describe that potential situation you might be called to create.	