Love God. Follow Jesus. Make Disciples. Equip for Service.

There was once a small boy who banged a drum all day and loved every moment of it. He would not be quiet, no matter what anyone else said or did. Various attempts were made to do something about the child. One person told the boy that he would, if he continued to make so much noise, perforate his eardrums.

A second person told him that drum beating was a sacred activity. The third person offered the neighbors plugs for their ears; a fourth gave the boy a book; a fifth person gave the boy meditation exercises. None of these attempts worked.

Eventually, a wise person came along... He looked at the situation, handed the child a hammer and chisel, and asked, "I wonder what's inside the drum?" Ah, the wisdom of that man! It reminds me of the wisdom demonstrated by King Solomon when two women came to him fighting over which of them was the true mother of a baby (1 Kings 3:16-28).

Solomon wrote, "Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding, for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold. She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her." (Prov. 3:13-15)

We need to understand, though, that knowledge and wisdom aren't the same thing. If you want to measure a person's knowledge, you give them a test. If they score 90 or above, they have a lot of knowledge. If they score below 50, well different story. But determining the measure of a person's wisdom is much more difficult. You must look at how he lives and the decisions he makes.

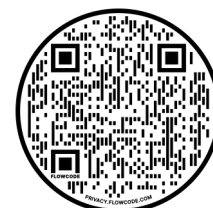

I remember the saying "To be old and wise you must first be young and dumb. "Wisdom is the skill to live in a way that is pleasing to God. It is not simply information in our heads. It is information that we put to use -- where we live, where we work, and where we play."

We live in a world where everyone seeks knowledge. We value education. We read books. But how many of us pursue wisdom to the same extent?

News

Congratulations! Claire Elise Brown was born April 22nd, 5lbs-1oz, 19 inches. Proud parents are Zale & Ashley Brown, proud grandparents are Danny & Lacy Brown, proud great-grandparents are Darrell & Michelle Brown.

Grayson Safar, Marina Serrano's grandson, was shot in the eye with a BB gun. Initially, it was thought surgery would not be necessary. As of Tuesday, it was determined surgery is necessary, but it can't take place until the pressure in his eye comes down. He will see the doctor on Tuesday to check the pressure & address the cataract issue he also has.

Shirley Garner had eye surgery on Monday, it went well & she is home resting.

Ronnie Letcher had hip surgery on Tuesday & it went well. He has started physical therapy.

Stan Robinson is at a crossroads in his spiritual walk. Lift him up as he looks for direction.

Ottie Speir will see a dermatologist this week for some skin issues & needs to see a doctor for his back problem.

Corporate meeting for all men in the congregation in the fireside room after morning worship service. This will be a short meeting, All men are encouraged to attend.

Be assured that wisdom is not something that you will stumble into by accident. It's a pursuit. It's a search. It requires an attitude that says, "I want to learn from God how to live, and I want to apply those principles to my life."

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore, get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding." (Proverbs 4:7) As always...IT's a great day to run to God, not away!
