News

Prayers for Lance Morrisett & family. Lance's uncle, Steve Morrisett passed away on October 3rd. Services were held yesterday in Duncan, Oklahoma.

Lynn Tarbet is now living in Seminole with his son.

Hailey Gerace, Vickie Troublefield's daughter, is recovering from a severe car crash. Vickie is one of the nurses at Good Life.

The church office will be closed tomorrow for Columbus/Indigenous Day.

Church potluck after morning worship service. If you are visiting, please join us, we would love to get to know you!

Wednesday night meals, sign up in the foyer to host a meal. Any questions, contact Jennifer Morrisett.

Prayer

If Jesus felt the need to pray to the Father, surely we need God's help in our own lives. God knows our needs even before we ask, but still He wants us to ask (Matt. 6:8); and Jesus tells us "that men always ought to pray" (Luke 18:1). James wrote that the fervent prayer of a righteous man does much good (James 5:16).

A prayer does not need to be long nor eloquent to be pleasing to God. It is to simply come from our heart as we humbly talk to our God and Creator. It was the simple and sincere prayer of the publican that was accepted by God, not the self-praising prayer of the Pharisee (Luke 18:10-14).

Prayer is to be directed to God the Father, as Jesus illustrated in teaching His apostles to pray (Matt. 6:9), and in the name of Jesus (John 14:13). Sometimes we get "stage fright" when asked to pray in public. But it helps to know that God is our "audience" and not those around us.

"Father, help us all to pray often with sincere hearts for we need Your help every moment of the day. In Jesus name, amen."

John K Wills
