News

Kenzie Amason, Cecilia McKee's great niece, had brain surgery on Friday.

Faith Caton, Crit & Carrie Caton's daughter-in-law, was diagnosed with IGA, which affects all the vessels under the skin causing internal bleeding. It also, affects the intestines & the kidneys & is very painful. She will have a long road to recovery & will have flareups the rest of her life. She is married to Koby Caton.

Church potluck, next Sunday, February 8th, after morning worship. Bring an entrée, side dish or dessert to share with your church family.

Gift card basket. A collection of gift cards is being taken for Ben & Cloee Kelley who were recently married on New Year's Eve. There is a basket at the welcome desk & please have all gift cards in by February 15th. Any questions contact Jessica Prude.

Wednesday night meals. Chefs needed for the months of February, March, April & May. Sign up at the welcome desk. Any questions, contact Jennifer Morrisett.

King of Kings

On one occasion when the night was stormy, the audience in a theater in which Edwin Booth was playing numbered only a handful of people, and they remained in the rear seats. The discouraged cast pleaded with Booth to postpone the play, but he said, "No, we shall go on. Play as though the king was in the audience." That night Booth presented one of his best performances.

A day or two later, the king sent for Booth and honored him with a public proclamation, for unknown to him, in the shadow of the last row of the theater, the king had sat that night!

Let us remember in times of stress and storm when we feel like quitting, that Christ, the King of kings and Lord of lords, is always in the shadows. Let us seek to please Him rather than giving up to despair, discouragement, and cynicism. Living to please Christ brings out the best in a person, enabling him to render the greatest service to God, to the world, and to himself.

"Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Corinthians 10:31).
