Are We Like Christ?

Some years ago, Brother G. F. Raines wrote about a young Buddhist who had made a very careful study of the life of our Lord said to a Christian: "Your Christ is wonderful, oh, so wonderful; but you Christians, you are not like him." Could it be that the Christian was left speechless by the accusation, because the force of the young Buddhist's remark lies in the fact that he almost "hit the nail on the head"?

Christ was a prayerful man (Luke 6:12); but too many "Christians" pray either infrequently or not at all. If we were like Christ, we would continue "instant in prayer" (Romans 12:12).

Christ came "to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10); but do we "Christians" lose any sleep because of the impending fate of the lost?

Christ's primary concern was his "Father's business" (Luke 2:49); but the work of the Lord is the thing about which many "Christians" are least concerned.

Christ had no place "to lay his head" (Matthew 8:20); but too many "Christians" are so fond of luxuries that they will not contribute liberally for the propagation of God's will.

Christ fervently prayed that Christians might be "made perfect in one" (John 17:23; cf. 11:20-22); but too many "Christians" bite, devour and consume one another.

A certain lady accurately expressed what real Christianity is when she said: "Christianity is putting Christ on inside, then letting him show on the outside."
