Faith When the Odds Are Against Us

Romans 4:19–21 gives us a beautiful picture of Abraham's faith. God had promised him a son, but from a human perspective, the promise seemed impossible. Abraham was nearly one hundred years old, and Sarah was well beyond the age of having children.

Yet Abraham chose to focus not on the size of the problem, but on the faithfulness of God.

Scripture tells us that he "staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God." He was "fully persuaded" that what God had promised, He was able to perform.

That is the heart of faith. Faith doesn't ignore reality—it simply remembers that God is greater than our circumstances.

When the road ahead seems impossible, remember Abraham. We may not know how God will work, or when He will answer, but we can remain fully persuaded of this: God is faithful, and He is able.
