When describing his calling to ministry, Jarrod says:

"Ministry is my life's work. Not only do I feel a powerfully personal call from God to the pulpit, but as a child I also fell in love with the work of ministry by watching my father during his nearly 50-year career of proclaiming the Gospel. There is simply nothing else I would rather devote my life to than the pulpit."

Jarrod and Stephanie are with us this weekend as we have the opportunity to get to know one another better. Together, we will seek to determine whether our ministries, goals, and vision for service align, and whether God is leading our families to work together for His glory here in Artesia.

Please take a few moments this morning to introduce yourself, extend a warm Hermosa welcome, and get to know Jarrod and Stephanie.
