

The Return of the Jews to Israel

Genesis 12:6 Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites were then in the land.

7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land."

God promised the land to Abraham in Genesis 12 around 2,091 BC over 4,100 Years Ago!

The LORD has brought the Jews Back to the Land of Israel 3 Times

1. The Jews returned, from Egypt, to the Promised Land with Joshua in 1405 BC, (Joshua 3), over 3,400 years ago.
2. In 538 BC the Jews began to return to Jerusalem with Ezra and later Nehemiah, 70 years after the Babylonian exile.
3. Most recently, 1,879 years after the Romans scattered the Jews, they returned for the final time in 1948.

A Nation Born in a Day

Isaiah 66:8 Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children.

Zechariah 8:1 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'I am zealous for Zion with great zeal; With great fervor I am zealous for her.'

Proverbs 21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, Like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wishes.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Navy asked Congress today for authority to shift sharply its construction of fighting craft from battleship, cruiser and destroyer types to guided missile vessels, a 65,000-ton carrier able to base, far at sea, planes with an operating radius of 1,700 miles, better submarines and floating "snappy submarine killers."

Such new ships, John L. Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy, told the House Armed Services Committee, must have a higher priority "because of the more immediate need for them in the event of an emergency." The immediate reaction of the committee appeared to favor prompt action.

of Bullish Enthusiasm Increases
Securities 1 to 7 Points

The hectic days of the Nineteen Twenties were re-enacted yesterday on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange when the most turbulent session in recent years produced increases of 1 to 7 points in the share list. Accompanied by a burst of bullish enthusiasm not witnessed in almost a decade, the surge of buying orders so taxed the facilities of the Exchange that the reporting ticker tape lagged behind floor transactions for five minutes.

The cracking of the 1947 high level at the approach of mid-day served as the signal for a buying rush. Public participation suddenly enlarged and buying orders pressed floor traders to the utmost. This condition existed for forty-five minutes in the final hour when 1,250,000 shares were traded.

Accompanied by the broadest market on record with a total of 1,151 issues dealt in, volume on the Stock Exchange approximated 2,800,000 shares, the largest since May 21, 1940, in contrast to the Thursday turnover of 2,000,000 shares.

Brokers termed it the "widest" bull market in twenty years on the premise that at no time in the interval had the industrial and rail advances with such a unity of force.

While the ground had been well laid for a movement of such scope earlier this week, it was the piercing of the 1947 resistance point that confirmed the presence of a bull market to those who act by the charts or averages. Early in the day, telegrams were sent by several advisory services to their clients urging the purchase of securities. The response to this advice showed prominently in the late

TEL AVIV, Palestine, Saturday, May 15.—Air raiders bombed this all-Jewish city at about dawn today.

First reports said there were "many casualties" near the power and light station.

[Cairo reported that Egyptian armed forces had been ordered to enter Palestine. Arab armies moved from Trans-Jordan at 12:01 A. M. Saturday to "liberate the Holy Land from Zionism," said a Trans-Jordan communiqué reported by The United Press from Amman.]

Tel Aviv was under complete blackout all night but no shots were sounded during the raid. Civil guards were alerted and fifteen to twenty ships in the port area moved out to sea.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—President Truman announced early tonight recognition by the United States of the new Jewish State of Israel. The President acted instantly upon being informed that the new nation had been proclaimed.

"This Government," he announced, "has been informed that a Jewish state has been proclaimed in Palestine and recognition has been requested by the provisional government thereof."

"The United States recognizes the provisional government as the de facto authority of the new State of Israel."

These two paragraphs constituted the text of the President's statement.

TEL AVIV, Palestine, Saturday, May 15.—The Jewish state, the world's newest sovereignty, to be known as the State of Israel, came into being in Palestine at midnight upon termination of the British mandate.

Recognition of the state by the United States, which had opposed its establishment at this time, came as a complete surprise to the people, who were tense and ready for the threatened invasion by Arab forces and appealed for help by the United Nations.

God's Purpose in Restoring the Jewish Nation

Ezekiel 36:19 "So I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries; I judged them according to their ways and their deeds.

20 "When they came to the nations, wherever they went, they profaned My holy name-when they said of them, 'These are the people of the LORD, and yet they have gone out of His land.'

21 "But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went. 22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for My holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went.

23 "And I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD," says the Lord GOD, "when I am hallowed in you before their eyes.

24 "For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land.

Adam Clarke's Commentary (1762 – 1832):

Ezekiel 36:24. I will take you from among the heathen] This does not relate to the restoration from Babylon merely. The Jews are at this day scattered in all Heathen, Mohammedan, and Christian countries. From these they are to be gathered, and brought to repossess their own land.

Echoes of Antisemitism: The Resurgence in Warsaw and London

Daniel Sokatch has spent much of his career fighting for equal rights for Israelis and Palestinians. As CEO of the New Israel Fund, he runs the largest global organization promoting democracy and equality for all who live under Israeli control. Sokatch was horrified to hear the news of Hamas's massacre of Israeli civilians on Oct. 7. But what further shocked him was the immediate response from some of his fellow advocates for Palestinian rights. "The reaction reeks of antisemitism," Sokatch says. "You can celebrate the slaughter of those people, just because they're Israeli, in a way that you wouldn't anywhere else in the globe."

TIME

Instead of condemning and mourning the deadliest day for Jews since Israel's founding, factions of the grassroots left appeared to celebrate the assault as an act of Palestinian heroism. The national chapter of Students for Justice in Palestine called it "a historic win for the Palestinian resistance." A coalition of 34 Harvard student organizations issued a statement saying they "hold the Israeli regime entirely responsible for all unfolding violence." The Democratic Socialists of America promoted a pro-Palestinian rally in New York where attendees reportedly chanted "resistance is justified when people are occupied." One was shown displaying a swastika. A Twitter account apparently belonging to Black Lives Matter Chicago posted an image of a paraglider with a Palestinian flag on X, appearing to celebrate the Hamas terrorists who descended to slaughter hundreds of Israelis at a music festival.

How the surge in anti-Semitism is affecting countries around the world

UPDATED NOV 1, 2023, 5:14 PM SGT ▾

Authorities and civil society groups in many countries have reported a surge in anti-Semitism since the Oct 7 attack by Hamas on southern Israel and subsequent bombardment of the Gaza Strip by the Israeli military.

Here's a look at how the surge is affecting countries, compiled by Reuters reporters around the world:

United States

Jewish advocacy group, the Anti-Defamation League, reported last week that anti-Semitic incidents had risen by about 400 per cent in the two weeks following the Oct 7 attack, compared with the same period in 2022.

Canada

Prime Minister Justin Trudeau spoke on Oct 17 of a “scary rise” in anti-Semitism in Canada, citing incidents at a Jewish high school in Toronto, as well as escalating inflammatory language online.

Britain

London’s police force said there had been a 14-fold increase in incidents of anti-Semitism since the Oct 7 attack.

South Africa

The number of anti-Semitic incidents in October was nine times higher than the average recorded for that month over the past decade, according to Mr David Saks, associate director of the South African Jewish Board of Deputies.

Germany

A survey by civil society observatory RIAS found a 240 per cent year-on-year increase in anti-Semitic incidents between Oct 7 and 15.

Russia

An angry crowd stormed an airport in the Dagestan region searching for Jews to harm after a plane arrived from Tel Aviv. The president of Russia's Federation of Jewish Communities called on the authorities to harshly punish the organisers behind the mob.

China

No figures are available on anti-Semitic incidents. On Oct 13, a staff member of the Israeli embassy in Beijing was assaulted and a suspect was arrested.

Chinese social media is awash with anti-Semitic content, including posts suggesting the Nazi Holocaust was justified and likening Jews to parasites, vampires or snakes.

With all of the protests and animosity how will Jewish people in Western nations respond?

American Jews Panic-Buying Firearms, Reversing Historically Left-Leaning Anti-Gun Stance

By Warner Todd Huston, The Western Journal
Published November 10, 2023 at 11:15am

American Jews have suddenly gained a newfound appreciation for our Second Amendment and are buying guns en masse on the tail of the Hamas terror campaign in Southern Israel and the subsequent rise in antisemitism in the United States.

As Florida resident and Orthodox Jew Henya Chein told NBC News on Oct. 22, she has bought a gun and is taking lessons on its use “because Jewish people are not safe anywhere now.”

The Jews have and will be making Aliya because of persecution throughout the world.

Zionism, Anti-Semitism, Violence, Vandalism, Protests, and Wars - what is it all about?

To answer that question we need to look at what God has to say about the Jews returning to the land of Israel?

According to God why are the Jews returning to Israel?

Ezekiel 37:6 "I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.""

11 Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They indeed say, 'Our bones are dry, our hope is lost, and we ourselves are cut off!'

12 "Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up from your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves.

14 "I will put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it," says the LORD."

According to God why are the Jews returning to Israel?

Ezekiel 37:21 "Then say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;
22 "and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all; they shall no longer be two nations, nor shall they ever be divided into two kingdoms again."

Isaiah 43:5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your descendants from the east, And gather you from the west;
6 I will say to the north, 'Give them up!' And to the south, 'Do not keep them back!' Bring My sons from afar, And My daughters from the ends of the earth-
7 Everyone who is called by My name, Whom I have created for My glory; I have formed him, yes, I have made him."
